

David McKenna, CPA, CA, BBA

Manager

Levy Casey Carter MacLean

Qualifications and Education

- Chartered Professional Accountant, Nova Scotia
- Bachelor of Business Administration, University of Prince Edward Island
- Professional development courses with the Atlantic School of Chartered Accountants
- Annual professional development courses with the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Nova Scotia
- Member of Institute of Chartered Accountants of Nova Scotia
- Member of the Canadian Institute of Chartered Professional Accountants

Summary of Experience

David has a variety of experience providing accounting, assurance, business advisory and tax services in Nova Scotia. He has experience in auditing and other services for a variety of for profit and not-for-profit organizations, government and government-related entities, professional organizations, condominium corporations, nursing homes and registered charities.

David has testified as an expert witness before the Nova Scotia Utility and Review Board in relation to the Town of Springhill and Town of Hantsport dissolution applications.

David has also done research and provided support for:

- Municipal dissolution applications
- Public sector accounting standards
- Accounting standards for private enterprises
- Accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations
- Compliance audits for gas tax and other capital grants
- Various consulting engagements of the firm

Contact Information

58 Bedford Highway

Halifax, NS B3M 2J2

Phone: (902) 445-4446

Fax: (902) 443-4846

Email: dmckenna@lccm.net